

Active TC Member Expectations (1 of 2)

- TC Members must be AIAA members
 - i.e., annual membership dues must be fully paid
- Stay in Communication:
 - Attend TC and subcommittee meetings
 - Notify TC and subcommittee chairs if you are unable to attend
 - Notify TC Secretary of changes in phone, email, organization
 - Attend the conference(s) your TC supports
 - Be responsive to TC leadership communications
- Be an advocate and champion for AIAA within your own organization!

Active TC Member Expectations (2 of 2)

- Participate and contribute substantively:
 - In any combination of two subcommittees/working groups or conferences
 - Be a major contributor/leader of at least one of these activities
 - TC members “in name only” will be at risk of losing their membership spot in favor of active members
- Examples of substantive contributions include serving as:
 - Forum Technical Chair or Deputy Chair (or equivalent for AIAA co-sponsored conferences)
 - Conference Session Chair (or equivalent for AIAA co-sponsored conferences)
 - Abstract Reviewer
 - Paper Reviewer for Best Paper/Student Awards
 - Contributor to Aerospace America Highlights article
 - Contributor to TC products (e.g., standards, policy and position papers)
 - Liaison to other organizations (e.g., other AIAA TCs/ICs, other professional societies)
- When the opportunity arises:
 - Submit nominations for new TC members
 - Submit nominations for awards and member grade elevations